"Flor Escapes is a one-stop shop for putting together rejuvenating vacations with quality hotels, guides, healers and activities", comments Kaaren Sydney, Founder and President of H.E.A.L.th.inc, in Miami Beach, Florida, "as a new resident of San Miguel de Allende I've realized that although this destination is known for the creative arts, it is a treasure trove for the healing arts, making it a perfect place for wellness retreats".

With only four accommodations, SonjoWasi offers a very unique and exclusive setting for stays in the heart of the city, in-between Parque Juarez and the Jardin (Main Square). The property's grounds include expansive gardens, an outdoor heated pool with surrounding outdoor terraces and plenty of space to cater private events. The interior includes four large accommodations (all en-suite; three with private terraces and two with fireplaces), an elegant living room with a hand-carved fireplace, an open kitchen attached to a dining room and a library with flat screen TV and stereo system.

Daily rates range from $265 to $315 per night, depending on room type, and are inclusive of breakfast, tax and service. A listing of room descriptions with corresponding rates are detailed on www.sonjowasi.com. An a-la-carte gourmet breakfast is provided for guests with options that range from traditional Mexican dishes such as chilaquiles to American choices such as banana granola pancakes. This property is pet friendly and children are welcome. The entire villa property is also available for takeovers on request. Click here to view a video tour of SonjoWasi.
